

CODE OF ETHICS OF PARA-MEDICAL PROFESSIONALS

A Registered Para-Medical Professional shall -

1. Be dedicated to provide competent medical care, with compassion and respect for human dignity and rights.
2. Uphold the standards of professionalism, be honest in all professional interactions.
3. Respect the law and also recognize a responsibility to seek changes in those requirements which are contrary to the interests of patient.
4. Respect the rights of patients, colleagues and other health professional, and shall safeguard patient confidence and privacy within the constraints of the law.
5. Continue to study, apply, and advance scientific knowledge, maintain a commitment to medical education, make relevant information available to patients, colleagues, and the public, obtain consultation, and use the talents of other health professionals when indicated.
6. Recognize the responsibility to participate in activities contributing to the improvement of the community and the betterment of public health.
7. While caring for a patient, regard responsibility to the patient as paramount.
8. Support access to medical care of all people.